IV Case histories

1. We conducted legal research, analysis and suggestions for the construction management of a large central enterprise under the framework of RCEP. For example, we helped the company fully grasp differences between the RCEP framework policy and the actual implementation of the local industry, as well as the possible legal risks, and gave timely investment risk suggestions to make a more comprehensive and prudent feasibility assessment.

2. We provided intellectual property legal advice, legal risk analysis and suggestions for a cross-border e-commerce platform.
